Romantic Orientalism incorporates African and Asian geographic locations, well-known colonial and "native" personalities, folklore, and philosophies to create a literary environment of colonial exploration from a distinctly European worldview. The current trend in analysis of this movement references a belief in this literature as a mode to justify European colonial endeavors with the expansion of territory.

Orientalism - Wikipedia

In Edward Saids influential book Orientalism a convincing framework is offered. It is argued that western discourse on the East (Orient) is based on a long Eurocentric tradition of prejudice and misinterpretations. According to Said, this "orientalism" served a political system of imperialism, lasting almost two centuries.
